Cover Letter: Attach a single page letter describing why your school should be recognized as the USCF Chess College of the Year. The nominator should be a current member of the institution being nominated, including a student, staff, or faculty member (proof may be requested).

List of Activities and Recognitions: Briefly describe the chess club's activities and recognitions over the past year. Nominations will be rated in the following categories: a) community involvement (e.g., teaching in local schools and/or community centers), b) college involvement (e.g., club meetings, simultaneous exhibitions), c) hosting or co-hosting of tournaments (unrated and rated), and d) tournament participation (students participating in intercollegiate competitions or other team events). If necessary, you may wish to continue the list on a second page.
